CONTENTS.

ANIMAL LIFE IN THE OCEAN: PAGE

Chapter IX. 171
X. 279
XI. 283
XII. 405
XIII. 408
XIV. 487
XV. 492

Art Education 111

Borrowers 169
Brittany 104, 208

Celebrity: its Pains and Penalties 82
Curiosities of Literary Composition 364
Cyril Wilde 88

Dante 451
Diner-Out, The 182
Duke Adelger of Bavaria 166

Educational Advantages of the Exhibition 327
Execution in Mexico, An 482
EXPERIENCES OF A REAL DETECTIVE:
No. 4. Caught at last 50
5. Isaac Gortz, the Charcoal-Burner 151
6. Mr. James Bunce 244
7. Circumstantial Evidence 356
8. Mrs. Waldegrave's Will 496

PAGE

Fables, Ancient and Modern 61, 183
Father Roach 512
Fisherman, The 395
French Influence on English Art 219

Guy's Cliff 254

Ham House 386
Hats, A Chapter on 324

International Exhibition, The 1

KING'S PAGE, THE:
Chapter VII. In which Poppy enlists a Recruit 16
VIII. In which Poppy sets his Mousetrap . . . 20, 120
IX. In which the Governor of Anjou sends an Answer . . 123
X. The Chevalier du Vernais re-appears 127
XI. The Page discovers a Terrible Secret 131
XII. Life in the Bastile 231
XIII. The King's Order proves of some Service . . . 235
XIV. Monsieur Fouquet's Casket 339
XV. The Chevalier settles his Accounts 341
XVI. The King's Wrath is appeased 348

LADY AUDLEY'S SECRET:
Chapter XIII. Troubled Dreams 65
XIV. Phœbe's Suitor 68
XV. On the Watch 71
XVI. Robert Audley gets his Congé 76
XVII. At the Castle Inn 193
XVIII. Robert receives a Visitor whom he had scarcely expected 195
XIX. The Writing in the Book 198
XX. Mrs. Plowson 204
XXI. Little Georgey leaves his old Home 306
XXII. Coming to a standstill 311
XXIII. Clara 318
XXIV. George's Letters 415
XXV. Retrograde Investigation 418
XXVI. So Far and no Farther 425
XXVII. Beginning at the other end 517
XXVIII. Hidden in the Grave 522
XXIX. In the Lime-Walk 526

Magic of Nature, The 472
Marriage from Pique, A 459

PAGE

Mozart 179
Mute, The 295
My First Shot at a Tiger 401

Newark Castle 162
Notes upon Letters 350

Past Ages, The 290
Pen and Pencil Sketches of the Picturesque:
No. 8. Newark Castle 162
9. Guy's Cliff, Warwickshire 254
10. Ham House 386
11. Whitby Abbey, Yorkshire 478
Playthings of Antiquity, The 322
Poems:
Ancient King, The 134
Botanist, The 271
Fisherman, The 395
Floral Lesson, A 243
Funeral at Sea, The 363
Gretchen's Song at the Spinning-Wheel 450
Mary 49
May-Day Rhyme, A 81
Shadows 278
Visit to the Churchyard, A 253
Practical Illustrations of Popular Fallacies:
No. 4. Take Care of Number One 135
5. Nothing venture, Nothing have 431
6. "Marriage is a Lottery" 468

Recollections of a Relieving Officer:
No. 1. The Burning Workhouse 84
2. The Grafton-street Tragedy 187
3. The Storm in Winter 272
4. Mr. Oliver Hayrigg 275
Restored to Life 392
Roland the Painter:
Chapter XII. Evil be to Him who Evil thinks 35
XIII. Where there is Smoke there is Fire 38
XIV. There is no Place like Home 42
XV. Still Waters run deep 139
XVI. Young England 140
XVII. Great Cry and Little Wool 143
XVIII. Beware of Deep Water unless you can Swim . . . 146
XIX. A Volcano may be covered with Snow 147

ROLAND THE PAINTER—continued. PAGE

Chapter XX. Coming Events cast their Shadows before . . . 261
XXI. The Sepulchre 264
XXII. The King of Terrors and his Victim 266
XXIII. Ivy Bridge 374
XXIV. Our greatest Strength is in defying our Weakness . 378
XXV. If we sow Thistles we shall not reap Corn . . . 381
XXVI. The Sorrows of Mynheer Krall 384
XXVII. The Falling Star 440
XXVIII. The Wreck 442
XXIX. The Valley of the Shadow 445
XXX. Better late than never 447
XXXI. All's Well that ends Well 448

Royal National Life-Boat Institution, The 435
Rousseau, Jean Baptiste 157

Schemer, The 257
Sea-Breezes 228
Spice Lands and Spices 214

Visit to a Sugar Camp, A 300